

P 4.

Acceptance Criteria	Expected Result/Output	Pass/Fail
A user is able to create a new transaction	The user clicks on button 'new transaction'. Inputs data into the relevant fields and saves transaction in budget tracker by clicking button. A confirmation page is displayed.	Pass
User must be able to display a list of all transactions	The user clicks on button 'display transactions' and a list of all transactions is displayed	Pass
User must be able to display total amount spent	The user clicks on button 'display transactions' and the total amount spent is displayed at the bottom.	Pass
User must be able to display total amount spent by tag	The user clicks on button 'display transactions' and the user can select the total amount spent by tag from a drop down menu	Pass
User must have a warning when the total expenditure is over budget	The user clicks on button 'new transaction'. Inputs data into the relevant fields and saves transaction in budget tracker by clicking button. A confirmation page is displayed and a warning displayed showing total expenditure over budget.	Pass

P 17.

Bug Tracking Report
User must be able to create new transaction	Failed	Created an HTML form with a POST method to allow new data to be inputted for a new transaction	Passed
User must be able to display a list of all transactions	Failed	Created an each method to loop through each transaction displaying the vendor, the location, the tag and cost.	Passed
User must be able to display total amount spent	Failed	Created an HTML  with a class called overall-spent to cater for the total amount spent	Passed
User must be able to display total amount spent by tag	Failed	Created an each method to loop through each tag and the tag's total amount spent.	Passed
User must have a warning when the total expenditure is over budget	Failed	Added if statement with a hard coded budget amount to ensure warning is displayed when user is over budget	Passed